A Sunday Lynching.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 22.—A Sunday lynching disturbed the small town of Jellico, a town on the Kentucky Tennessee line yesterday. George Gamble, a negro about 25 years of age assaulted the 11-year-old girl of A. B. Francis about 4 o'clock. After accomplishing his fearful work the negro fled toward Pleasant View, Ky., followed furiously by a mob which captured him at that point. He was taken back to Jellico, where he was identified by his victim. He was then dragged to the scene of his crime where he was strung up just at nightfall. The little one is not expected to live, the injuries inflicted upon her being probably fatal.

TWELVE THOUSAND CATARRH PATIENTS

Treated Absolutely Free of Charge by Dr. Hartman.

The announcement made in many of the leading papers of the United States last November that Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, would undertake the treatment of 10,000 catarrh patients free was thought by many who would have gladly availed themselves of his offer to be a mistake. Nevertheless it was a fact, and already the 10,000 have applied and are already taking the first month's treatment. The elaborate preparations which the doctor made and the greater number of assistants required to carry on this undertaking, makes it possible for him to extend the number to 12,000. Therefore 2,000 more names will be accepted as regular patients. All that is required of the patient is to send name and address to Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and complete directions for the first month's treatment will be sent at once. No charge is made at any time.

FREE MEDICAL BOOKS

on catarrh, la grippe, coughs, colds and consumption will be pre-paid for a short time to any address by the Peru na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

A Supersedeas Granted in Benton's Case.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 18.—Daniel Benton, alias Bill Newby, convicted of presenting a false pension claim, was brought here from the Chester penitentiary to-day, and, after giving $2,500 bond, was released pending the decision of the United States court, which granted a supersedeas in the case.

SUGAR TO COME FREE.

There Will Be No Bounty And There Will Be No Tax.

Decisive Majorities Rule.—The Income Tax May Be Tacked On To The Customs Bill.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—Although to-day was set apart for the discussion of the sugar schedule, the advocates of the income tax came forward and captured everything in sight. There was not a word said on the floor which would indicate a preconcerted move on the part of the income taxers, but when the day was over and the results compared, everything was revealed.

NO DUTY, NO BOUNTY.

Since their knockout before the ways and means committee when it was decided to present the customs schedules and the internal revenue features in separate bills the income tax advocates have been engaged in a quiet hunt and have carefully counted income tax noses. Their opportunity came to day, and the day's voting shows that when the sugar schedule is again taken up there will be no tax imposed on either raw or refined sugar, and the bounty system which was knocked out in its entirety to day will have place in Democratic legislation.

The bounty system was imposed by Republican legislation. It was a product of Mr. Reed's famous Congress, and the Democrats have always denounced it as infamous. On the first proposition submitted to day to cut down the McKinley bounty, the majority was 76, and every Democratic vote was polled for it except in the Louisiana delegation. Then the proposition to abolish the bounty in its entirety, beginning next July, was carried by a majority of 66. Mr. Harter stepped forward with an amendment making the tax 1 cent a pound on both raw and refined sugars, and with other amendments deemed objectionable and the propositions were rejected overwhelmingly by a viva voce vote.

VOTING DOWN AMENDMENTS.

Price, the Louisiana sugar planter who got $50,000 last year from the government in bounties, proposed an amendment substituting the sugar schedule of the Mills' bill for the Wilson bill schedule. Nineteen votes were cast for it and 130 against.

Then Breckinridge of Kentucky tried to have 1 cent a pound placed on sugars, and his amendment was snowed under by 76 majority. This vote was a clear indication of the determination of the House. Robertson's amendment and the parliamentary tangle referred to followed, and the sugar men knew their doom.

Now that it has become apparent that the majority of the Democrats will insist upon passing an income tax measure through the House the Republicans announce their intention of assisting them in tacking it on to the customs bill.

TO MAKE IT A RIDER.

Representative Dalzell outlined the Republican policy in an interview to-night and stated that when Mr. Bryan's amendment was submitted practically the solid Republican vote would be cast for it. This, of course, will be done in the belief that the bill thus weighted down can never pass. The Democrats, however, think differently. One of the members of the ways and means committee in an interview with The Times correspondent stated that if the two bills were incorporated into one there would not be at the most more than fifteen Democrats who would be willing to go on record as voting against it. Its fate in the Senate has also been discussed, and the committeeman declared that forty-five Senators would vote for the bill with an income tax as one of its features. It is known that the Populists in the Senate intend to oppose the bill. If the income tax feature is made part of the bill the House Populists declare that their Senators will be compelled by the sentiments of their constituents to vote for the entire bill.

Disgraced Her Home.

Fort Scott, Kan., Jan. 22.—It has developed that J. N. Suddarth, the exquisite young man who purported to be on the road for the C. O. Baxter picture frame house of St. Louis took one of Fort Scott's prettiest women with him when he escaped from jail Friday night. She is Mrs. Mollie Roberts, the handsome young woman who pawned her jewelry to get him released from jail and thus exposed the scandal of her connection with Suddarth.

Upon being ejected by an irate husband she took her two pretty little girls and went to the house of a prominent lady philanthropist and besought her to take them in for a few days. That night she left the house where she had sought refuge, assisted the man who had won her heart and ruined her home, to escape from jail, where he was confined for petty larceny. They fled together. The woman is attractive in face and form and her disappearance has created much talk. She is considerably older than Suddarth.

Board of Regents.

Warrensburg, Mo., Jan. 20.—The first annual meeting of the board of regents of the state normal school for 1894 was held at the normal yesterday. P. H. Holcomb of Butler was the only absentee. The election of officers of the board resulted as follows:

President, Judge John N. Dalby, of Sedalia. Vice President Chas. W. Stevenson, Warrensburg; Secretary, Henry C. Fike, of Warrensburg; Treasurer Wm. P. Hunt, of Warrensburg.

President Osborn was given a month's leave of absence to inspect the normal schools of the other states, also to attend the convention of state normal school presidents which meets in February at Norfolk Virginia.

The building will hereafter be lighted by electricity.

The appended telegram was received by The Times last night with request that it be published immediately:

Editor Times.
Washington D. C., Jan. 18.—I do not indorse the article recently published in a Kansas City paper, signed "Old Bourbon." After investigation on my part, I find that Witten McDonald has been unjustly, unnecessarily, and in some instances maliciously slandered with the view of prejudicing the Southern element against him. I send this from the fact I am unwilling to be coupled with any man or men in doing another injustice as has been done him in this case.

Best Prospects in Fifty Years.

R. F. Benedict, one of the Bone diet brothers who own an extensive fruit farm in this county, having some 10,000 apple trees, was in Nevada Tuesday, and in conversation with an Evening Post representative said: "I thought the bloom of last fall was a bad omen, but I have since given the question a deeper study. Now, everything is most favorable to a good, healthy development of the bud. Good horticulturists say that at present the prospect for a fruit crop is the best for fifty years. A cold spell would not hurt apple, though it might the peach trees. Apples are not injured in the bud—Nevada Post."

TO BE BURNED AT THE STAKE.

The Awful Death Which Will Be Meted To Two Negroes.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 22.—The two negroes who assaulted the 12 year-old daughter of farmer Jacques, who lives three miles west of Verona, this county, still retain their liberty. Armed posses of determined men are scouring the country in every direction. If found the wretches will receive swift and horrible justice from Judge Lynch. They will suffer no common place death. In all probability they will be burned at the stake.

The community is thoroughly aroused and the populace will stop at nothing. If the brutes are captured they are doomed. Hundreds of well-armed men from this city and all the towns along the St. Louis and San Francis railroad as far west as Monett have joined in the hunt. These men hunters want blood, and they swear that they will never give up the chase until their games is cornered.

The story of the crime is alike simple and horrible. Sunday morning Mrs. Jacques, wife of a young German farmer living three miles west of Verona, went to Verona to attend church. She was accompanied by her 12 year old daughter. After service mother and daughter started for home. At the outskirts of the town, the mother decided to remain in town and attend a funeral service in the afternoon. Her child continued on her homeward way.

Half a mile from town the girl met two negroes. They seized and tied her to a tree. A gag was placed in her mouth and then she was horribly assaulted by both brutes. The crime was committed about one o'clock. Three hours later the girl managed to wrench the gag from her mouth and gave the alarm. Her screams attracted the attention of a farm hand named Abe Zinn.

When released the girl couldn't walk and is now in a horrible condition. Zinn gave the alarm and all the able bodied citizens of Verona, not to speak of the adjacent towns have joined in the hunt.

The worse than murderers have managed thus far to elude their pursuers.

A dispatch from Carthage says that two negroes, one of whom answers the description of the fugitive, have been detained there, and officers will be sent there to identify the prisoners.

ED NOLAND PARDONED.

Gov. Stone Restores His Citizenship by a Pardon.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 25.—Governor Stone transmitted to Secretary of State Lesueur the following letter:

Sir: At the April term, 1892, of the Supreme court Edward T. Noland who had been convicted on an indictment before the circuit court of Cole county of the crime of embezzlement, from which court he had appealed, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. On the 21st inst. he was discharged from his imprisonment under said sentence under the operation of the three fourths rule, his conduct in prison having been good. Mr. Noland now applies to me to be restored to his rights of citizenship, and the supplication is supported by similar requests from a large number of reputable citizens. With Mr. Noland's offense against the law the people of the state are familiar. Prior to that unhappy event he stood high in the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. His family connections and associations are of the most reputable and honorable character. Aside from the act which cost him his liberty and brought discredit and reproach upon his name, I have never heard anything to his discredit. Having expiated his offense by suffering the punishment imposed upon him he now expresses his desire and purpose to do all in his power to regain what he has lost. In this most commendable effort, I feel that the public authority should not put any obstacle in his way. Therefore for the purpose of restoring him to his rights as a citizen, I this day pardon the said Edward T. Noland unconditionally. Please issue accordingly. Respectfully,

W. J. STONE.

Mr. Richard Harding Davis's recent journey to the cities of the Mediterranean has borne fruit in an international story of New York and Tangiers, in which three American types are set against a background of Arabs and enforced residents of Northern Africa. It is in two chapters, and will be published with illustrations in the May Harper's Magazine. A short Van Bibber sketch by Mr. Davis called "An Anonymous Letter" will appear in the February Harper's.

BABY ONE SOLID RED

Literally on Fire with Eczema. Screaming and Clawing all the Time.

Added to this were Abscesses and Suppuration.

Entirely Cured by CUTICURA. Now Stout and Hearty.

Our little baby, almost 24 years old, was taken with some form of Eczema when she was about three months old. Her little body was one solid red from the soles of her feet to the crown of her head, and she seemed to be literally aflame, screaming and clawing all the time. When she was about five months old, there was added to her affliction, abscesses and suppuration. We tried the local M. D.'s, and some other remedies without any relief. I had read considerable about the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and one of our neighbors had used them, claiming that they were as good as claimed. I concluded to try them, and after the use of three or four boxes of CUTICURA, and about one and one-half bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, with the CUTICURA SOAP, our little one is now entirely cured, and is stout and hearty. Your CUTICURA REMEDIES are all and more than you claim them to be. I always have a good word to say for friends and neighbors for your excellent remedies.
